This Week's Game:
Morgan vs. Davis at Davis.
Ogden high vs. Weber Normal at Ogden.

Keen competition is expected to rule next Friday evening when the Ogden high school hoopers play the fast Weber Normal college quint in the first league game of the season in Ogden. The Weberites were defeated last week in a close contest with Davis high school, in which they were "robbed" according to fans who witnessed the game.

Coach Malcolm Watson of the Weber quint stated today that his men would be put through fast workouts during the present week in preparation for the game Friday. Scrimmage with the second team will take place today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Budge, Hilt and Landau are expected to carry the bulk of attack for the Blue and White players, while Farnoff, Knudsen and Thomas are looked upon to do the scoring for the Ogdenites.

Preparation have been made to handle a large crowd and it is expected that 1500 fans will be in attendance when the whistle sounds.

Davis and Box Elder high schools top the league with one win and no defeats. Box Elder easily defeated the Morgan quint last week and on paper the league title lies between the Tigers and the Hoopers.

Box Elder and Box Elder, Box Elder and Davis have the "jump" on the local teams and will be hard to defeat during the season.

Officials for the Friday evening game will be selected at a meeting of representatives of the two schools today. It is probable, however, that Wid Ashton, will be the referee.

Tickets for the Friday evening game will be placed on sale at various downtown stores during the week. Several sections of reserved seats will be placed. Students of the two schools will assemble on opposite sides of the hall.

RING AND MAT

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Earl Caddock, former heavyweight wrestling champion of the world, has begun training for his bout with Ed Strangler Lewis, the champion, here, a week from tonight. Caddock weighs 190 pounds, about five pounds more than on previous appearances here. He declared he was confident of regaining the title.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Andy Chaney and Charles Beecher, featherweight boxers, meet in a fifteen-round bout tonight to decide who of them will fight Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 17.—Johnny Wilson, of Boston, holder of the world's middleweight championship, and Joe Chip, New Castle, Pa., will meet here tonight in a ten-round no-decision bout. Wilson finished his training yesterday by boxing four rounds with his sparring partner, Chip, arrived from New Castle this morning.

Jack Harborton of Ogden and George Nelson of Preston, Ida., will settle their differences on the mat at Logan this evening. The match will be best two falls in three to a finish and is being staged by the Logan A. C. The men will meet at catch weights.

Kid Dutch of Salt Lake and the Canadian Kid will meet in the six-round headliner at the Wasatch arena Friday evening. George Rolis and the Cache Valley Kid will meet in the other feature.

Willie Ritchie, former world's champion lightweight boxer, will visit Ogden yesterday en route to New York City from the coast. Ritchie is seeking a return battle with Benny Leonard.

Battling Nelson, famous as "The Durable Dane," will be given a chance to face the New York Boxing commission this month, the date to be announced later. Nelson refereed a bout in Gotham recently and when one of the battlers was floored, the former lightweight champion walked around quite a little before starting to count. One of the customers in a ringside seat began to give Nelson the razor rather severely and Bat gave up the counting job and went to the ropes to challenge the noisy patron. A lively argument ensued and at one time Nelson is said to have started to get out of the ring. The incident was reported to the boxing barons and they must do their official duty by calling Bat in for a private hearing.

Charles Cochran, British fight impresario, who is declared in for a cut of the receipts of the proposed Dempsey-Carpentier match, is one of the saddest of men. The New York state boxing commission set a limit on the price of fight tickets. Word received from Cochran, who is now in London, indicates that the Britisher is in favor of moving the mill any place in the world, so long as it is taken away from New York. Cochran did not forget to remind American promoters that England would not have objected to the price asked for choice tickets. The British promoter was anxious to know what arrangements had been made for shifting the battle and left instructions that he be called immediately when plans were formulated.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—Wladimir Zvezko, challenger for the heavyweight wrestling championship, and Ad Santel have been matched for a two-hour limit match here Friday night. It was announced today that Zvezko defeated Jimmy London, Greek champion, on points with no falls, last Friday.

CENTRE COLLEGE STAR MAY TURN PROFESSIONAL

SPORT CHATTER BY AL VARDEN

Directors of the Ogden baseball club will hold a meeting this evening at which time plans for the coming season will be outlined. Various business matters will be discussed at the meeting.

President John Coburn of the Northern Utah baseball league has tendered his resignation to the officials of the various teams of the league. Coburn will manage the Logan team in the new circuit this season. A successor to the Logan team will be named at a meeting of league officials to be held at Logan tomorrow afternoon.

The first intercollegiate basketball game of the season will be played at Provo next Saturday evening when the Utah Aggies tangle with the fast U. T. C. aggregation. Both teams are represented by strong quints.

Jack Dempsey may not meet Jess Willard March 17. This information has been given out by Jack Kearns, who states that the new law against "sky-high" prices for seats in New York may result in halting the contest. The limit on seats in New York under the new law is $15.

Pete Herman's showing against Jimmie Wilde in London a few nights ago warrants a return match with Joe Lynch, the new bantam champion. Lynch recently defeated Herman in a fifteen round contest at Madison Square Garden, New York.

The new baseball league recently organized in the east to battle the nature was incorporated for $25,000. Gee, that wouldn't even buy Roger Hornsby's shoes, at the rate the big league clubs are bidding for the St. Louis star. And, together with the fact they have offered the former White Horse stars—those relieved of service on account of throwing games—contracts for 1921.

It should be some time, yes, and what is more, all classes of people will be allowed to take part in the game in the new circuit. The Federal league lasted almost two seasons; this circuit should last at least three months.

When the new fish and game commissioner steps into office he will be greeted with $34,000, which is left over in the treasury from 1920.

As a matter of fact the majority of the sportsmen of the state are of the unanimous opinion that this money should have been spent for improvements in various parts of the state. Had Commissioner Sildoway, closed his books minus five cents to be turned over to the state, sports followers, it is said, would have been more pleased.

Governor Charles Mabey will not do name his choice for the state game position during the present week. More than one hundred men are candidates for the honors—with but one man to be selected. Ninety-nine of the candidates are sure to be disappointed.

Three Ogdenites are candidates—time will tell.

The INSIDER SAYS

Blancher seats will cost 50 cents, including war tax at Akron this season. There's going to be Kid days, ladies' days, and other days, too.

Man o' War has had several predecessors: Napoleon, for instance.

Mature beats Greenleaf, pocket billiard champion, but the crown doesn't change hands. Another one of those no-decision things.

Sammy Slegers is only 21, but he knocked Johnny Murray down three times in one round. Looks like the kid is the old block himself.

In Havana you can get a meal for three bucks—if you aren't too thirsty.

Rud Riley, bantam and feather champ of the Pacific coast, is coming east in another month or two. Bud beat Roy Moore and Moore kayeed Sharkey. The coarser ought to get some good business on that.

The Memphis Chicks turned a nice trick in signing Spencer Abbott to manage the club this season. Abbott won the Western league tussle with his Tulsa Oilers last year.

The Omaha club will train at Fort Smith, Ark. Fearin Burch, who bought Pat O'Rourke's franchise, thinks Houston will be overworked with tourists.

Averages don't mean a lot. When all is done and said—

KING MAY BE NAMED PREXY OF NEW LEAGUE

With the resignation of John Coburn as president of the Northern Utah baseball league tendered several prominent men have been mentioned as possible successors to the Logan man. One of the men mentioned for the position is E. G. King of Layton, manager of the Layton club in the Wasatch league last year and one of the organizers of the Wasatch league.

Fans of this section of the league have been boosting for King and it is highly probable that he will be elected.

Under the supervision of King, the Layton club easily copped the pennant last season.

SEATTLE MAN HOPES TO REVIVE YACHT RACING

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 17.—Daniel L. Pratt, Seattle yachting authority, is en route today to California, where he will confer with representatives of practically all yacht clubs on the coast with a view to effecting a thorough reorganization of the yachting association of the Pacific.

CURLING PLAY OPENS.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 17.—The twenty-eighth annual bonspiel of the Northwestern Curling association opened here today. Fifty players from rinks in the northwest and several from Canada are entered.

Morris Rath, who fidgeted best. No longer is a Red.

McGraw's attempted speed record in quitting Hasen's snail club ended like his ball club did last year—strong, but a little late.

Wrestling matches at Iowa State college draw crowds second only to football and basketball.

Bobby Jones, Jr., now figured the next possible amateur golf champ, learned his stance and swing by mimicry of the age of 5.

The Giants will have three good substitutes if they need any this year. McGraw, Jennings and Burket were all once great players.

Lady Luck won't buy the baby any more shoes on some of the ball club's hits.

Tris Speaker protests another pennant for the Indians. What makes us think he hasn't lost any of his speed is that he roped a steer in 32 seconds the other day.

Richard tried the question and answer riddle with Johnny Kilbane and got a $99.999 jawful.

Changing beds doesn't appeal to Helme Groh. Helme says he's domesticated where he's at, likes the town, and wants to stick around if it's all the same to Pat.

GUARD USED TO PROTECT FAMOUS SUPER RACE HORSE

When Man o' War, the superhorse, owned by Samuel Riddle of Philadelphia, is retired at the Hinata farm, Lexington, Ky., he will be constantly guarded by two horsemen who will be armed to the teeth and prepared for any emergency in the matter of persons trying to steal or kill the famous race horse. In addition to the guards, Man o' War's quarters will be lined with burglar alarm systems, so that help can be summoned in a jiffy. Mr. Riddle does not anticipate that his celebrated race horse will be bothered after he arrives at Hinata farm, but he will take no chances with cranks or ardent admirers who although of good intentions may harm the animal. Man o' War is insured heavily.

Mr. Riddle never gave much thought to the matter of providing protection of such thorough nature, until some friends called it to his attention that such a valuable equine might be constantly tempted to evildoers. The owner believed the danger of the horse being harmed would practically be at an end after he was retired from racing, but additional thought along this line caused him to change his mind.

Watkins and Wilson are leaders on the Box Elder team.

The game is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock sharp. A large crowd is expected. Members of the Ogden and Weber teams will be present to get a line on the style of play used by the Box Elder five.

CANADIAN KID TO MEET KID DUTCH

Kelley and Cache Valley Kid to Fight Again Friday at Wasatch Club

Manager J. R. Downing of the Wasatch Athletic club today announced a card for Friday night in the club arena which should be especially appealing to fans who attended the scraps last week. In the headline six-round event, the Canadian Kid will tangle with Kid Dutch of Salt Lake, a lad with the same shuffling tactics as shown by the Canadian and one who can be depended upon to furnish action for heavy hitting.

For the semi-windup, Manager Downing has again matched Cyronide Eddie Kelley and Cache Valley Kid Dyer, who produced the shirdding event of last Friday's card. These boys came to Manager Downing and requested a return match, each believing that if given the opportunity, he can bring home the lion's share.

Kelley and Dyer tip the scales at the same poundage and both have appeared in many scraps in Utah. Kelley has fought semi-windup battles in Salt Lake during the past two years, while Dyer has been starting on cards staged in Logan during the winter. A Logan man who developed Dyer and has Dyer under his wing, has declared that he is going to give the lad a few more battles in Utah and then take him out in the fastest company and give him a trial. He believes him to be of the class which will develop into one of the best lightweights in the west.

Four other fast scraps will be on the Friday night program, Manager Downing announced.

DIAMOND DUST

Ernie Fallentine, one of the greatest baseball stars ever developed in Utah, and property of the St. Louis Browns, will, in all probability, manage the Tremont club in the new Northern Utah circuit during the coming season. Fallentine is a catcher of the first order. He was formerly with Portland in the Pacific Coast league.

Cy Morgan, former coast league and Southern association player, will be one of the heavies on the Brigham City club during the coming season.

Managers of the Smithfield and Lewiston teams will be named during the present week. These two teams have many stars left on their reserve lists from last season and expect to have banner years.

But three more months until the diamond artists will cavort around the field. Ogden is preparing.

BARNYARD GOLF STARS TO MEET

National Titles Will Be Decided at St. Petersburg During February

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 17.—Barnyard golf, as the sport of pitching horseshoes has come to be popularly known, thrives in Florida, which always has been the mecca of the enthusiasts of the game in winter. Its supporters are looking forward to William Farnum's birthday, February 22, champions, ex-champions, and would-be-champions at present are busy practicing and two dozen or more courts are kept running here from morning until night. The championship matches will attract crack pitchers from all parts of the country.

The horseshoe pitchers have developed a game to a high degree. The equipment of a first class mark includes a lodge or club house for keeping the horseshoes, a small hand laundry to wash and dry towels for use of the players during the progress of matches, hydrant of running water for the players to wash their hands after handling the shoes which sink deeply into the soft earth about the pegs and a rake to keep the earth smooth about the peg during the matches, and a small blacksmith shop to keep the shoes and pegs in first class condition as the game is rough on them.

The courts require a pitching distance of thirty-six feet. A match of two men is called the walking game as the players walk back and forth from peg to peg during the progress of the match. In a four-man match, the players play partners and remain in their place at the ends of the court.

In the tournaments fifty points constitute a game, while in ordinary contests twenty-one points is the total required by the winner. A "ringer" counts three points. The horseshoes weigh about two and a half pounds each. They are regulation horseshoes which have never been used on horses. Many carry their own shoes and bestow on them the same care that a golfer does on his clubs.
